

Charles D. Wilder, Esq.
Named One of Nation's Top 100 Attorneys

Worth Magazine unveiled its list of the Nation's Top 100 Attorneys in their December 2005 issue. Worth Magazine indicated that the attorneys chosen combine exceptional legal expertise with outstanding interpersonal skills and great tact. In addition, the magazine searched for attorneys that think beyond the numbers and routine of their daily work and have a keen sense of service.

Charles D. Wilder was the only attorney from the Central Florida area. Chuck, along with partner Nick Rubino, is a founding member of the Estate Planning and Legacy Law Center, PLC a law firm concentrating in personal planning areas of the law: estate planning, charitable planning, business and succession planning, legacy planning, and administration law such as probate, trust administration and guardianship law.

Board Certified by The Florida Bar in Wills, Trusts and Estates, Charles D. Wilder holds the highest rating in the Martindale-Hubbell legal directory of "AV." He has been listed in the Leading Florida Attorneys directory and was listed in Swarthmore's Who's Who in the 1998/1999 edition. Chuck graduated from Nova Southeastern University Center for the Study of Law, cum laude, in January, 1980, and the University of Florida with a Masters of Laws in Taxation in June, 1981. For the past twenty-four years, Chuck has practiced in the Orlando area.

Past chairman of the Estate, Guardianship and Trust Committee of the Orange County Bar Association, Chuck is a Circuit Representative on the Executive Council of the Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section of The Florida Bar and a participant in WealthCounsel, LLC, a nationwide organization of estate planning attorneys. In addition, he is the founder and past chairman of a local Estate Planning Discussion Group composed of attorneys, accountants and trust officers and a long time member of the Central Florida Estate Planning Council.

Chuck is married to Karen A. Reynolds, a coronary care nurse who is originally from Jamaica, and they live in Altamonte Springs, Florida.
